Dear Mr. Ricca:

Thank you for writing on behalf of the Lehigh Valley Firearms Coalition. I have always supported second amendments rights. I believe that the best way to reduce violent crime is strong law enforcement. It is important to provide our law enforcement agencies with the tools that they need to fight crime and protect our communities.

As chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, I have conducted several public hearings around the state to receive testimony relating to urban violence. I am interested in hearing about proposals that may directly and substantially reduce the number of violent criminal acts in our communities. I will keep an open mind and consider any proposal that would have little impact on the right to bear arms but a substantial impact in reducing crime.

Sincerely,

STEWART J. GREENLEAF
